God the Father, eternally mysterious, we worship you. God the Son, eternally giving, we bless you. God the Holy Spirit, eternally witnessing, we adore you. Holy and glorious Trinity, three persons and one God, we magnify you, now and for ever.

Sunday Worship

Rev Sue Jacobs leads us in worship on Sunday 30 June from 10.30am. This week's service includes the Baptism of Jaxon which is particularly special to Sue who has known the family for 20 years. Emotions may run high so do bring along tissues, a mop and bucket! Later that evening (6.30pm), all are welcome to join the Healing service at Dorset Gardens led by Rev Andy Lowe. Talking of evening services, the next Junction service at Central URC on Sunday 7th from 5pm, will be the last Junction service. All are especially welcome!

Due to poor response the safeguarding training planned for July 3rd at Patcham will NOT take place.

We plan to reschedule it in the autumn.

Circuit Refugee Project

Thank you Andy, Sue and the whole Sunday service crew for an inspiring and moving Chatty Church service on June 23rd, Refugee Sunday. Thank you Hove MC congregation for your engagement, donations, thought provoking discussion & creativity. Here's a picture of David's powerful Art work he made during the service. We are going to frame it for display.

Our congregation donated over £220 in cash and online donations to Journey4Sanctuary after the service. So the current total raised is £1699!

In early July we will donate one sixth of the final total to each of our charities. A big shout out to Thousand41000 (T4K), our local charity specialising in support for housing for Refugees. Somehow, I missed them off my list of charities on my PowerPoint! All six charities and what they do are listed on our Just Giving page, along with photos of our amazing journey together! <https://www.justgiving.com/page/brightonhovemethodistsjourney4sanctuary>

Sandie also mentioned Refugee Radio, another Refugee run local charity who do amazing work. Find out more at Refugee Radio – supporting refugees, asylum seekers and vulnerable migrants

Home front

Refugee Sunday Service

Last Sundays Chatty Church could be described as more of a solemn gathering to reflect on the theme of Refugee week, whilst stirring up empathy and our collective responsibility. The service itself interspersed with videos (Rocket Man), hymns/songs (Lean on me), prayer and the gut wrenching poem 'Home' by Warsan Shire was a platform for discussion and open expression of the effects and our response to what was shared. Evidenced by this intriguing painting by David Sharman highlighting all the emotions at play.
