Sue's Last Messy Church

An absolutely beautiful Messy Church last Friday. Thanks to all who came and shared it with us. Sue received flowers and a big thank you from Andy and everyone for running Messy Church since she started it 15 months ago. Over 60 people came last Friday for a Summer Messy theme. We all say a massive thank you to Sue who is leaving the team and the families in very good shape to keep on getting Messy monthly from September!!

Circuit Refugee Project

After a whopping, wonderful Woodingdean MC donation of £350 from sponsorship for Beulah, Terry, Sheila and Marian's walk from Woodingdean MC to Dorset Gardens (via Rev Kathleen's home in Brighton Marina where they enjoyed a nice cuppa!), our grand total on Just Giving for the Journey for Sanctuary is now £2,182!! Once all the money is in the circuit account, we will donate one sixth to each of our six charities. Well done and thank you everyone!

We are also getting very excited to welcome the Network of International Women's social enterprise Sewing Collective to our Hove MC Street party on Saturday July 13th. The Sewing Collective are getting excited too. As well as a table selling hand-sewn goods from recycled fabrics, they will have a table selling baked goods traditional to their home countries. They take cash or card payment.

Garden Party

Congratulations to Pat and Michael Hill on their 65th Wedding Anniversary. Many of our church family joined the celebrations last Saturday afternoon in Paul & Rachel's sunny garden. We toasted the still happy, still gorgeous couple and enjoyed a wonderful spread. As Michael said, we are all so pleased to be part of the Hove MC family.
